BATTERY REMINDER

Your Roadster’s battery is one of the most sophisticated battery systems in the world.

An important and simple way to preserve your Roadster’s battery is to always leave it plugged in while at rest. This is particularly important if you are not planning to drive your Roadster for several days. When plugged in, the battery can be charged, cooled, or heated as appropriate, while remaining systems work towards optimization.

Remember — a connected Roadster is a happy Roadster!